The Jewish Messiah

Prophecies of the Bible and How Jesus Fulfilled Them

Messiah” is Hebrew and “Christ” is Greek for “Anointed One.” God, through the prophets, anointed the chosen kings of Israel with oil. According to Daniel 7, the Messiah would be the greatest anointed king—the King of Kings. About the Promised One, Daniel wrote:

*“I was watching in the night visions,
And behold, One like the Son of Man,
Coming with the clouds of heaven!
He came to the Ancient of Days,
And they brought Him near before Him.
Then to Him was given dominion and glory and a kingdom,
That all peoples, nations, and languages should serve Him.
His dominion is an everlasting dominion,
Which shall not pass away,
And His kingdom the one
Which shall not be destroyed”*(Daniel 7:13-14 NKJV).

Daniel’s “Son of Man” was a title commonly used by the Hebrew people when referring to the Messiah. Jesus fulfilled the role perfectly even though their scribes and rulers in Jerusalem couldn’t see it. During Jesus’ trial, when the High Priest asked Him if He was the Messiah, He answered: “You have said it yourself; nevertheless I tell you, hereafter you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of power, and coming on the clouds of heaven” (Matthew 26:64 & Mark 14:62). There could be no question in the minds of His listeners when He used this key Messianic Scripture to declare that He was the Messiah. They made the connection, but they did not believe Him and convicted Him of blasphemy.

Jesus referred to himself 84 times as ‘the Son of Man’ thus associating Himself with Daniel’s Messianic title. When teaching His disciples, He said: “When the Son of Man comes in His glory, and all the holy angels with Him, then He will sit on the throne of His glory” (Matthew 25:31 NKJV).

The day Jesus rode into Jerusalem to the Messianic praises of a crowd of Passover pilgrims, He fulfilled a key Scripture – Zechariah 9:9—and this event fell on the exact day the Messiah would be revealed as long ago prophesied by Daniel in 9:24.

Seventy weeks are determined
For your people and for your holy city,
To finish the transgression,
To make an end of sins,
To make reconciliation for iniquity,
To bring in everlasting righteousness,
To seal up vision and prophecy,
And to anoint the Most Holy.”
Daniel 9:24

“Rejoice greatly
O Daughter of Zion!
Shout, Daughter of Jerusalem!
See, your king comes to you,
righteous and having salvation, gentle and riding on a donkey, on a colt, the foal of a donkey.”
Zechariah 9:9

God's Heart

“So God created man in His own image; in the image of God He created him; male and female He created them” (Genesis 1:27 NKJV).

God made us like himself, unlike any other created beings he had made. In the beginning, he made us free, but with one law to keep. And the LORD God commanded the man, saying, “Of every tree of the garden you may freely eat; but of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil you shall not eat, for in the day that you eat of it you shall surely die” (Genesis 2:16-17 NKJV).

Adam and Eve wondered about the tempter’s reasoning which led them to conclude: Why can’t we eat from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil? Was God holding something back from them to know and experience? They didn’t trust God at this point. After they ate the forbidden fruit, the first thing they knew was they were naked. They hid themselves, afraid of God until they heard His voice calling to them in the garden. “Where are you?”

Adam replied from his hiding place and that he was naked.

“Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten from the tree of which I commanded you that you should not eat?”

It was the only commandment God had given them. It foreshadowed this one: “Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength.”

Our Creator didn’t want robots or to be taken for granted. He desired loving relationship. And for love to be real, it must be free. Adam and Eve were free to love him, or not. God anticipated what they’d do even from the beginning. His long range plan was set in motion. He killed an animal and covered the shame of Adam and Eve with its hide. It was the beginning of animal sacrifices that continued through the evolution of people and cultures for a very long time. Eventually, God formed and chose a people to call his own. Known as the Jews, he made sure they kept track of blood lines, their lineage, and that they record what God told them to do and not do. It was a real relationship he had with them. Even though it was mostly one-sided when it came to commitment and faithfulness, but God had expected that, too. In fact, the religious system of Judaism, including the animal sacrifices, the sacred festivals, the priesthood, the Law and the Prophets, the Temple, the city of Jerusalem—everything became part of God’s Story, the Divine Drama. And all of it was established for the Messiah. (Even though by the time Jesus came to redeem people from the Law, we had made a religion of legalistic madness, with more rules to follow and man-made traditions than people could bear.) His Law pointed to what the Messiah was meant to do: Save us from our sins and give us his own Life to dwell in us. That is why God opted to “remove” not just “cover” our shame and sins. Jesus abides with us in the form of his Holy Spirit, giving what is his to give. Messiah Jesus is Immanuel.

For example, Jesus was called the Lamb of God. Here is God’s wisdom in action. Without Judaism’s ritual of Passover, Jesus’ work on the cross, on the Day of Passover in Jerusalem, would mean nothing. He didn’t just come to fulfill Passover. Passover existed for Jesus. It was his plan, laid out from the foundations of the world. The Messiah’s first coming ushered in redemption. He showed us God’s heart and face. The God of Israel wanted to walk among us as one of us, like he’d wanted to do in the Garden of Eden. He came as a Jew because he had been building history with a people to show them his heart was intent on creating relationship with us. Jesus is the most Jewish Jew who ever lived; he caused Judaism to be Judaism so he could fulfill what it all means. Without Israel’s experiences with God, where would anyone be?

One day, all the people in the world, every color, race, tribe, and tongue will call Jesus Lord. And He will have His heart’s desire and we will have ours.

PERFECT FULFILLMENT—HISTORICAL PROOF

The four Gospels record several times that Jesus said He was fulfilling a prophecy of the Scriptures thus indicating He was the Messiah. Two branches in the stream of Messianic prophecy reveal:

- Prophecies of a kingly, triumphant Messiah (the eternal heir to David’s throne);
- Prophecies of a suffering, redeemer-Messiah, righteous and bringing salvation. The Hebrew name Yeshua (Jesus) means God’s Salvation.

Although the Scriptures foretold Jesus’ mission, hindsight revealed that the Messiah was meant to suffer as the atonement for humankind’s sin, return to heaven in glory, and then send the Holy Spirit to reign in the hearts of believers thereby spreading God’s Kingdom of light. And, in the fullness of time, specifically, after the “times of the Gentiles” have been fulfilled, Jesus will return in person to reign on David’s throne. As recorded in Luke 21:23-24, Jesus prophesied: “But woe to those who are pregnant and to those who are nursing babies in those days! For there will be great distress in the land and wrath upon this people. And they will fall by the edge of the sword, and be led away captive into all nations. And Jerusalem will be trampled by Gentiles until the times of the Gentiles are fulfilled.”

A couple of days before His crucifixion, Jesus prophesied in the temple: “See! Your house is left to you desolate; for I say to you, you shall see Me no more till you say, ‘Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord!’” (Matthew 23:38-39 NKJV).

The Jewish nation as a whole hasn’t learned Jesus is their Messiah but the Scriptures reveal that they will before He returns to the temple. Today, both Jews and Christians look forward to the temple being rebuilt so that the Messiah will come. Israel is once again a nation living in the land and is an important part of prophecy being fulfilled, and it is happening in our lifetime. In the past forty years, Jewish people in Israel are accepting Jesus as their Messiah in startling numbers. One day everyone will adore Jesus as Messiah and Lord—as the Old Testament and New Testament words reveal:

- Isaiah 45:23 (NKJV): I have sworn by Myself; the word has gone out of My mouth in righteousness, and shall not return, that to Me every knee shall bow, every tongue shall take an oath.”
- Philippians 2:1-11 (NKJV): “Let this mind be in you which was also in Christ Jesus, who, being in the form of God, did not consider it robbery to be equal with God, but made Himself of no reputation, taking the form of a bondservant, and coming in the likeness of men. And being found in appearance as a man, He humbled Himself and became obedient to the point of death, even the death of the cross. Therefore God also has highly exalted Him and given Him the name which is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of those in heaven, and of those on earth, and of those under the earth, and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.”
- Apostle Paul in Romans 14:9-11 (NKJV): “For to this end Christ died and rose and lived again, that He might be Lord of both the dead and the living. But why do you judge your brother? Or why do you show contempt for your brother? For we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ. For it is written: ‘As I live, says the Lord, “Every knee shall bow to Me, and every tongue shall confess to God.”’”

After His death and resurrection, on the road to Emmaus from Jerusalem, Jesus opened the Scriptures to two distraught men who obviously knew and loved Him and didn’t recognize Him yet:

“O foolish ones, and slow of heart to believe in all that the prophets have spoken! Ought not the Christ to have suffered these things and to enter into His glory?” And beginning at Moses and all the Prophets, He expounded to them in all the Scriptures the things concerning Himself” (Luke 24:25-27 NKJV).

According to Luke 24:36-49 (NKJV) the two men rushed to Jerusalem to tell the disciples in hiding that they had seen and spoken with Jesus when suddenly . . .

“Jesus Himself stood in the midst of them, and said to them, ‘Peace to you.’ But they were terrified and frightened, and supposed they had seen a spirit. And He said to them, ‘Why are you troubled? And why do doubts arise in your hearts? Behold My hands and My feet, that it is I Myself. Handle Me and see, for a spirit does not have flesh and bones as you see I have.’

“When He had said this, He showed them His hands and His feet. But while they still did not believe for joy, and marveled, He said to them, ‘Have you any food here?’ So they gave Him a piece of a broiled fish and some honeycomb. And He took it and ate in their presence.

“Then He said to them, ‘These are the words which I spoke to you while I was still with you, that all things must be fulfilled which were written in the Law of Moses and the Prophets and the Psalms concerning Me.’ And He opened their understanding, that they might comprehend the Scriptures.

“Then He said to them, ‘Thus it is written, and thus it was necessary for the Christ to suffer and to rise from the dead the third day, and that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in His name to all nations, beginning at Jerusalem. And you are witnesses of these things. Behold, I send the Promise of My Father upon you; but tarry in the city of Jerusalem until you are endued with power from on high.’”

Jesus never hid from anyone who He claimed to be. Once in the temple He made it clear to the Jewish rulers: “For if you believed Moses, you would believe Me; for he wrote about Me” (John 5:46 NKJV).

From the beginning, the apostles taught that Jesus fulfilled the following Old Testament prophecies:

- But those things which God foretold by the mouth of all His prophets, that the Christ would suffer, He has thus fulfilled” (Acts 3:18 NKJV).
- “Then Paul, as his custom was, went in to them, and for three Sabbaths reasoned with them from the Scriptures, explaining and demonstrating that the Christ had to suffer and rise again from the dead, and saying, ‘This Jesus whom I preach to you is the Christ’” (Acts 17:2-3 NKJV).
- ““For I delivered to you first of all that which I also received: that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures . . .”” (1 Corinthians 15:3-4 NKJV).

Jesus came to be the Sacrifice during the Feast of Passover.

He died for the sins of the world on the Day of Passover, as the “Lamb of God” just as the Prophet, John the Baptist, claimed Him to be. John came in the spirit of Elijah at the time of Jesus according to Scripture and Jewish tradition.

Jesus was the First Fruit, on the Feast of First Fruits—the “first of many” to be born of God’s Spirit.

Jewish Expectations and Prophecies of the Messiah Fulfilled

- 1) A prophet like unto Moses. This was prophesied by Moses, himself: “The Lord your God will raise up for you a Prophet like me from your midst, from your brethren. Him you shall hear, according to all you desired of the Lord your God in Horeb in the day of the assembly, saying, ‘Let me not hear again the voice of the Lord my God, nor let me see this great fire anymore, lest I die.’ And the Lord said to me: ‘What they have spoken is good. I will raise up for them a Prophet like you from among their brethren, and will put my words in his mouth, and he shall speak to them all that I command him. And it shall be that whoever will not hear my words, which he speaks in my name, I will require it of him’” (Deuteronomy 18:15-19). Like Moses, the Messiah would be a leader, a prophet, a lawgiver, a deliverer, a teacher, a priest, an anointed one, a mediator, a human, and one of God’s chosen people (a Jew) performing the role of intermediary between God and man—speaking the words of God. Both Moses and Jesus performed many miracles validating their message. As infants, both their lives were threatened by evil kings, and both were supernaturally protected from harm. Both spent their early years in Egypt. Both taught new truths from God. Both cured lepers (Numbers 12:10-15; Matthew 8:2-3) and confronted demonic powers. Both were initially doubted in their roles by their siblings. Moses lifted up the brazen serpent to heal all his people who had faith; Jesus was lifted up on the cross to heal all who would have faith in him. Moses appointed 70 elders to rule Israel (Numbers 11:16-17); Jesus appointed 70 disciples to teach the nations (Luke 10:1, 17). There are many more parallels between the lives of Moses and Jesus.
- 2) The Messiah would be a descendant of Noah’s son, Shem. Noah said, “Blessed be the Lord God of Shem; and Canaan shall be his servant. God shall enlarge Japheth, and he shall dwell in the tents of Shem; and Canaan shall be his servant” (Genesis 9:26-27). Chapter 10 goes on to list descendants of Shem, noting that he was an ancestor of Eber (Luke 3:35), the founder of the Hebrew race.
- 3) He’d be a descendant of Shem named Abraham (Genesis 22:18; 12; 17; 22). Fulfillment: See Christ’s genealogy in Matthew 1.
- 4) More specifically, he would be a descendant of Abraham’s son, Isaac, not Ishmael (Genesis 17; 21). Fulfillment: See Christ’s genealogy in Matthew 1.
- 5) More specifically, he would be a descendant of Isaac’s son, Jacob, not Esau (Genesis 28; 35:10-12; Numbers 24:17). Fulfillment: See Christ’s genealogy in Matthew 1.
- 6) More specifically, he would be a descendant of Judah, not of the other eleven brothers of Jacob. Fulfillment: See Christ’s genealogy in Matthew 1.
- 7) More specifically, he would be a descendant of the family of Jesse in the tribe of Benjamin (Isaiah 11:1-5). Fulfillment: See Christ’s genealogy in Matthew 1 and Luke 3:23-38.
- 8) More specifically, he would be of the house of David (2 Samuel 7:12-16; Jeremiah 23:5; Psalm 89:3-4). Fulfillment: See Christ’s genealogy in Matthew 1; Luke 1:27, 32, 69. Note: Since the Jewish genealogical records were destroyed in 70 A.D., along with the destruction of Jerusalem and the temple, it would not be possible for a Messiah imposter who was born later to prove his lineage back to David and thus fulfill this prophecy.
- 9) He will be born in a small city called Bethlehem, specifically the one formerly known as Ephrathah (Micah 5:2). Fulfillment: Luke 2:4-20.
- 10) He will be born of a virgin (Isaiah 7:14). Fulfillment: Matthew 1; Luke 1.

- 11) The Messiah would be the “seed of a woman” come to destroy the work of the Devil. God prophesied to the serpent Satan, “And I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your seed and her seed. He shall bruise your head, and you shall bruise his heel” (Genesis 3:15). The implication was that Eve’s descendant would undo the damage that Satan had caused.
- 12) The “seed of the woman” can only be an allusion to a future descendant of Eve who would have no human father. Biologically, a woman produces no seed, and except in this case biblical usage always speaks only of the seed of men. This promised seed would, therefore, have to be miraculously implanted in the womb. In this way, he would not inherit the sin nature which would disqualify every son of Adam from becoming a Savior from sin. This prophecy thus clearly anticipates the future virgin birth of Christ.
- 13) He will be a priest after the order of Melchizedek (Psalm 110:4). Fulfillment: Hebrews 5:6
- 14) The scepter shall not pass from the tribe of Judah until the Messiah comes. He will come before Israel loses its right to judge her own people. The patriarch Jacob prophesied this: “The scepter shall not depart from Judah, nor a lawgiver from between his feet, until Shiloh come; and unto him shall the gathering of the people be” (Genesis 49:10). As Dr. Henry M. Morris’ The Defender’s Bible explains: This important prophecy has been strikingly fulfilled. Although Judah was neither Jacob’s firstborn son nor the son who would produce the priestly tribe, he was the son through whom God would fulfill his promises to Israel and to the world. The leadership, according to Jacob, was to go to Judah, but this did not happen for over 600 years. Moses came from Levi, Joshua from Ephraim, Gideon from Manasseh, Samson from Dan, Samuel from Ephraim and Saul from Benjamin. But when David finally became king, Judah held the scepter and did not relinquish it until after Shiloh came. “Shiloh” is a name for the Messiah, probably related to the Hebrew word for “peace” (shalom) and meaning in effect, “the one who brings peace.” According to the Jewish historian Josephus, the Sanhedrin of Israel lost the right to truly judge its own people when it lost the right to pass death penalties in 11 A.D. (Josephus, Antiquities, Book 17, Chapter 13). Jesus Christ was certainly born before 11 A.D.
- 15) He will come while the temple of Jerusalem is standing (Malachi 3:1; Psalm 118:26; Daniel 9:26; Zechariah 11:13; Haggai 2:7-9). Fulfillment: Matthew 21:12, etc. (Note: The temple did not exist at certain periods in Jewish history, and it was about 40 years after Jesus that it was destroyed in 70 A.D.)
- 16) He will perform many miracles (Isaiah 35:5-6). Fulfillment: Many miracles recorded in the Gospels.
- 17) He will open the eyes of the blind (Isaiah 29:18). Fulfillment: Matt. 9:27-31; 12:22; 20:29; Mark 8:22-26; 10:46; Luke 11:14; 18:35; John 9:1-7.
- 18) He will speak in parables (Psalm 78:2). Fulfillment: Matthew 13:34.
- 19) The Gentiles will believe in him, while his own people (the Jews) will reject him (Isaiah 8:14; 28:16; 49:6; 50:6; 60:3; Psalms 22:7-8; 118:22). Fulfillment: 1 Peter 2:7.
- 20) A messenger (a man of the wilderness) will prepare the way for him (Isaiah 40:3; Malachi 3:1). See John the Baptist (Matthew 3:1-3; 11:10; John 1:23; Luke 1:17).
- 21) The exact day he revealed himself publicly to Israel—and subsequent death. The precise timing of Jesus’ crucifixion was also given to the Jews when God revealed to the prophet Daniel (9:24) how the Jews could calculate the day of the revealing of the Messiah. Talking of a 490 year period, the prophet foresaw that it would begin “from the going forth of the commandment to restore and build Jerusalem” (9:25). In the book of Nehemiah we learn that this command was given “in the month Nisan (on the Hebrew calendar), in the twentieth year of the king” (2:1). The king was Artaxerxes Longimanus who ruled from 465 to 425 B.C. The prophet Daniel said that 483 years from that date, the Messiah would be revealed to Israel, but he would then “be cut off, but not for himself” (9:26). This prophecy refers to the crucifixion when Jesus died, or was cut off, for the sins of the world. 483 years later, to the day, on April 6, 32 A.D., Jesus rode into Jerusalem on a donkey and revealed himself as Israel's Messiah. It was also the day the lambs were brought for inspection to be found without blemish, approved for that family's Passover sacrifice. Jesus was the Lamb of God, presenting himself at the temple. He was killed four days later, fulfilling the prophecy that he would be revealed and then slain.

- 22) He will enter Jerusalem riding a donkey (the colt of an ass) (Zechariah 9:9). Fulfillment: Matt. 21:5; Luke 19:32-37.
- 23) He will be hated for no reason (Psalm 69:4). Fulfillment: John 15:25.
- 24) He will be betrayed (Psalm 41:9). Fulfillment: Matthew 27:3-10.
- 25) More specifically, he will be betrayed by a friend (Psalm 41:9). Fulfillment: Matt. 27:3-10; 26:47-48.
- 26) The price of his betrayal will be thirty pieces of silver (Zechariah 11:12). Fulfillment: Matt. 27:3-10.
- 27) The betrayal money will be cast onto the floor (Zechariah 11:13). Fulfillment: Matthew 27:5.
- 28) More specifically, it will be cast onto the floor of the Temple (Zechariah 11:13). Fulfillment: Matt. 27:3-10.
- 29) The betrayal money will be used to buy a potter's field (Zechariah 11:13). Fulfillment: Matt. 27:6-10.
- 30) He will not open his mouth to defend himself (Isaiah 53:7). Fulfillment: Matthew 27:12.
- 31) He will be beaten and spit upon (Isaiah 50:6). Fulfillment: Matthew 26:67; 27:26-30.
- 32) He will be "numbered with the transgressors" (Isaiah 53:12). Fulfillment: Jesus was crucified as a criminal in between two thieves (Matthew 27:38).
- 33) He will be pierced (Zechariah 12:10). Fulfillment: John 19:34
- 34) His hands and feet will be pierced (Psalm 22:16; cf. Zechariah 12:10; Galatians 3:13).
- 35) Crucifixion foretold. Psalm 22 graphically prophecies the Messiah's manner of death. At the time the psalm was written (and long after), the penalty for blasphemy was stoning. However, at the time Jesus was condemned by the Sanhedrin, it no longer had the legal right to put people to death. Thus, the case was taken to the Roman governor Pontius Pilate who crucified him according to Roman custom.
- 36) The Jewish Passover sacrifice and Jesus' sacrificial death coincide exactly. The date on which Jesus was crucified coincided precisely with the Jewish Passover. Jesus became the Passover Lamb, "without blemish." At the first Passover, described in Exodus 12, God instructed the Israelites to kill a lamb with no blemishes and to put its blood on their door posts. When the angel of death passed through Egypt where the Israelites were being held as slaves, the angel would pass by any house that had the blood of a Passover lamb on its door posts. Jesus fulfilled Moses' prophecy of the Passover Lamb because it is through his unblemished, sinless blood that we can be saved from, or passed over by, death.
- 37) His bones will not be broken (Psalm 34:20; Exodus 12) states that the Passover lamb's bones are not to be broken.). Fulfillment: John 19:33.
- 38) They will divide his clothing and cast lots for them (Psalm 22:18). Fulfillment: John 19:23-24.
- 39) He will be given vinegar and gall to drink (Psalm 69:21). Fulfillment: Matthew 27:34, 48.
- 40) He will say: "My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?" (Psalm 22:1). Fulfillment: Matthew 27:46.
- 41) He will be buried with the rich (Isaiah 53:9). Fulfillment: Matthew 27.

- 42) He will not decay (Psalm 16:10). Fulfillment: Acts 2:31
- 43) He will be resurrected from the dead (Psalm 16:10). Fulfillment: Acts 2:31.
- 44) He will ascend into heaven (Psalm 68:18). Fulfillment: Acts 1:9.
- 45) He will be seated at the right hand of God (Psalm 110:1). Fulfillment: Hebrews 1:3.
- 46) He will be the Son of God (Psalm 2:7). Fulfillment: Matthew 3:17.

“Who has ascended into heaven, or descended?

Who has gathered the wind in his fists?

Who has bound the waters in a garment?

Who has established all the ends of the earth?

What is his name, and what is his son’s name?—if you know?”

Proverbs 30:1-4

The Father’s name is “I AM”

And His son’s name is “Yeshua” (Jesus) which means “God’s Salvation”

I AM GOD’S SALVATION.

JESUS.

“For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son,
That whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life.
For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world,
But that the world through Him might be saved.
He who believes in Him is not condemned;
But he who does not believe is condemned already,
Because he has not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God.
And this is the condemnation, that the light has come into the world,
And men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil.
For everyone practicing evil hates the light and does not come to the light,
Lest his deeds should be exposed.
But he who does the truth comes to the light,
That his deeds may be clearly seen, that they have been done in God.”

John 3:16-18 NKJV
